RE: Notice of Intent to File Suit

In re: Dolbow v. Johnson, El Paso County District Court Case 96DR1112

Dear Attorney General Suthers:

On February 17, 2010, you received notice of my intent to take personal action against Policy Studies, Inc., the delegate child support enforcement unit for the El Paso County Department of Human Services. The notice stated I would take action by March 5, 2010 and requested that you initiate an investigation of the unlawful conduct of PSI in the handling of my case. As court records reflect, I have filed numerous pleadings since March 2, 2010.

The February notice to you was followed by my March 10th fax that made a second request for an independent investigation and included a copy of the pleading filed on March 9th to assist you.

On April 5th, April 19th, and May 3rd, you received other communications from me regarding the State's alleged interference in the resolution of my child support modification case. The April 19th twenty-seven page document was provided to you to assist you in the understanding of the misconduct that occurred on January 13, 2010 and that is known to be ongoing.

Today, I am giving notice of my intent to file suit against the State of Colorado as required by §24-10-109, C.R.S. on the basis that Colorado, through judicial proceedings, has violated my Fourteenth Amendment rights to due process and the equal protection of the laws. Said suit is afforded no protection by the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act.
